

Art truly does imitate life...

join us for an evening of storytelling with Roz Chast!

Wednesday, September 21, 2016 • 7pm
Quincy Community Theatre
Reception and book signing to follow

Roz is a celebrated cartoonist for the New Yorker magazine. She is also a daughter. Join Roz as she shares her experiences - both humorous and heartbreaking - of her parents' transition from independence to dependence. This unique presentation, with illustrations, will strike a chord in all audience members who recognize that aging isn't always pleasant!

For your free ticket to "An Evening with Roz Chast"
call 217-228-5521

Proudly hosted by:

B BLESSING
Hospice & Palliative Care