“My participation in WILA led to an opportunity to work with the Workforce Investment Board to help bring the healthcare perspective to their organization. It has given me the chance to network with other members of the healthcare industry and share our successes and failures with hiring and retaining staff. It has also helped me connect with other business leaders so we can stay current on the economic outlook in our area.”

Nikki Buehler, Marketing/Admissions Specialist, Timber Point Health Care

- Acquire a broad understanding of the complex issues and tasks facing leaders
- Build relationships necessary to resolve the challenges ahead
- Identify opportunities
- Become better prepared for active involvement, whether in the workplace, as a volunteer in a community, organization, or holding public office.
- Take tours to see how the region has, is, and plans to respond to these complex topics.
